HOWARD CLAPHAM

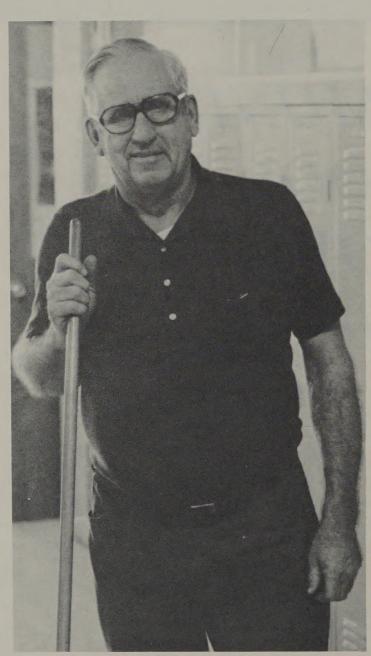

Howard has been the elementary school janitor for 19½ years. He has worked with 4 principals: George Koons, L.F. Bachman, Dave Else, and Ken Erpelding.

Howard lives by the Mathers Nursing Home, where his wife, Esther, resides. Howard and his wife have two children, Sue and Steve. Both are married and Sue has a daughter, Katie Ann.

Howard said, "It's been a very nice job with very nice surroundings and very nice people to work with and wonderful children."

"All I can say about the children is—they're just beautiful—everyone of them. They're just something special."

We would all like to wish Howard good luck in his retirement!

HOMECOMING WEEK

During this year's Homecoming week, our school showed a trememdous amount of pride and spirit for their team. Following its tradition Homecoming was as exciting as ever. Each day of the week was of special significance to the players, the coaches, and the students. For example: Monday was round-'em up day, Tuesday was pin'em up and blow'em away day, Wednesday was the 50's day, Thursday was crazy day, and Friday was good ol' green and white day. Also during the entire week the students participated in painting their floats. This year's competition was very good. The Seniors came through with a victory and the Juniors came in a close second. The week's festivities were concluded with the game, the election of Queen Karla and her court, and the dance featuring Headstone. So all in all it was a very busy, yet exciting week!!

THE MIRACLE WORKER

This play, THE MIRACLE WORKER, is based on the life of Helen Keller who became blind, deaf, and mute as a result of scarlet fever when she was two years old. This play is an illuminating portrait of her triumph over her disabilities which has made her life an inspiration to the entire world for threequarters of a century. This play portrays Helen as a women who, from her childhood, has seen the world only through the eyes of others. Her soul is opened and expanded as she is released from her prison of physical handicap and her tantrums are tamed by her teacher, Annie Sullivan.

Annie Sullivan, the daughter of Irish immigrants, was poor, ill, and nearly blind herself. She was inexperienced as a teacher, yet she had the relentless vitality that was to force her pupil's unwilling mind from the depths of her unconsciousness. Annie refused to admit defeat even when Helen's own family had given up in despair of teaching Helen anything.
